Press Release – Thursday, September 24, 2026

Inner-City Home of Sudbury is the 8th recipient of one of ten donations of $7,500 as Sudbury Credit Union celebrates 75 years with $75,000 in donations.

Sudbury Credit Union is celebrating 75 years in the community. To celebrate this milestone year, the credit union will be making 10 special donations of $7,500 each to local organizations throughout the year. One recipient will be announced each month, from February to November.

The 8th recipient of one of the ten anniversary donations is the Inner-City Home of Sudbury.

The Inner-City Home of Sudbury (ICH) provides emergency food bank services to approximately 1,200 people each month throughout Sudbury. ICH is a not-for-profit charity and does not receive any funding. It relies on donations from individuals, businesses, special events and other sources. Over 60 volunteers are actively involved in helping ICH assist families and children who are experiencing food insecurity. The need tends to grow almost daily.

"We are delighted and fortunate to be a part of Sudbury Credit Union's 75th anniversary celebrations. SCU has been a generous donor and supporter of the ICH for many years. Our volunteer Board is truly grateful for this $7,500 donation which will assist many families and children in our community. Thank you, Sudbury Credit Union, and congratulations on 75 successful years of service in our community." Joe Drago, President, Inner-City Home of Sudbury.

"We are happy to announce the Inner-City Home of Sudbury as this month's recipient of our anniversary donation. ICH is making an impact in the lives of many members of our community who face food insecurity and SCU is proud to support the work they do." Mimi Regimbal, CEO of Sudbury Credit Union.
